

BALLET WEST STUDENT IN-THEATER PRESENTATIONS 2026-2027

Ballet West Student In-Theater Presentations are designed to build on a student's experience with the Ballet West for Children program. Students and teachers have the opportunity to attend a ballet performance at the Janet Quinney Lawson Capitol Theatre. This hour-long program begins with an educational introduction and is followed by a portion of the repertoire currently being performed for the general public.

For more information or to request to attend a student in-theater presentation, please call 801-869-6911 or email education@balletwest.org or visit our website at: <https://www.balletwest.org/community/education/student-in-theatre-performances>.

All attendees may request a student/teacher Getting the Pointe workshop to supplement and enhance their attendance at a Ballet West Student In-Theater Presentation. This offering is available through in-person or virtual zoom opportunities. Availability is limited.

Symphony in C

Recommended Grades: 3-12

Experience the ultimate ballet set to pure music in George Balanchine's Symphony in C. This is the ballet that stays with you for years — women in sparkling white tutus and tiaras, men in classic tunics, and Bizet's radiant Symphony No. 1 filling the hall with its brilliant, effervescent orchestration. It is the ballet you picture when you close your eyes and think of ballet. Balanchine's neoclassical masterpiece unfolds across four sweeping movements, building to a breathtaking finale as 52 dancers flood the stage in a radiant celebration of energy, elegance, and classical style. Long after the curtain falls, this is the vision that lingers — pure, timeless, and utterly unforgettable.
